

FROM FOREIGN LANDS.

Notes of Interest By Wire and Mail From Beyond the Sea.

"WINDING-SHOP" in England was measured in 1755. It was thirty-eight feet seven inches in girth. It is seventeen inches larger now—that is its growth in 145 years.

SANSUKE HAYASAKI, general superintendent of police in Japan, who is visiting the various capitals of Europe, and studying the methods of criminal supervision may come to New York for points.

WHILE Prince William of Wurtemberg was driving to church at Ludwigsburg Sunday, he was fired at by a man named Klaibach, who, upon being arrested, exclaimed: "It is high time Wurtemberg had a Catholic King." The Prince was not hurt, but the would-be assassin is supposed to be dead.

The government of Chile has enacted a law, to take effect four months from August last, abolishing import duties on materials used for the use of agriculture, mining, trades and industries, and on rails and railway cars.

HONG-KONG is growing with marvelous rapidity, and it seems that it is to be made the principal terminus of the Suez Canal. British colonies, including the British Isles around the world, are tempting thither capital from all sections of British dominions. It now has seven million tons of shipping per year, over $30,000,000 of locally registered capital, and it is practically the financial center of the whole East.

A DISPATCH from Ottawa reports that the sensation of the hour of the Dominion capital is the announcement that D. B. Chisholm, whose wife recently suffered a disease in Chicago to enable her to marry the late George C. Foster, millionaire, Senator at the approaching meeting of Parliament for a divorce on his own account. Failing to secure a divorce he will claim Mrs. Foster as his wife, and will demand that she leave Foster.

THROUGH inadvertently kissing a pretty seductress, George Winchell, a butcher at Sydney, New South Wales, has come into a fortune. The girl objected to the attention, which won him, of the local newspaper, and when she was asked what she wanted, she replied: "I want to make you sick." The butcher, however, prompted the negro to murder the white officials of the Phosphate Company.

THE smallest circular saw in the world now in actual use is a tiny disk less than the fourth of an inch in diameter, used in making tiny wooden boxes. The inventor, Taylor Co., Ky., says: "The saw is very sharp, and the thickness of a sheet of writing paper and revolves at the rate of 4,000 revolutions per minute. The high velocity keeps the saw rigid, notwithstanding its thinness."

THERE is a rich family of the name of Lofting in England, the fortune of whose house was founded by such an apparently insignificant thing as the thimble. The first ever seen in England was made in London about two hundred years ago, by a tailor named Lofting.

The author of the article commanded it at once to pull off the needle, and Lofting required a large fortune. The implement was then called the thimble, it being worn on the hand, and it was a great success.

This clumsy mode of utilizing it soon changed, however, but the name, softened into "thimble," remains.

THE death Saturday morning of Dom Luis, King of Portugal, brings to the Portuguese throne his son, the Duke of Braganza, who assumes the crown with the title of Charles I. The new King is a young man of twenty-six, and is credited with a degree of talent and enterprise not common with the house of Braganza. He is said to be fond of his studies, and to have a taste for the dramatic arts.

In general and the misconduct of George Winchell in particular, he would next morning and found himself famous, and it was then discovered, owing to the publicity given to his name, that he was a missing man.

ON the occasion of the marriage of the Duke of Sparta with the German Emperor's sister great fêtes will be held in the Aeroplane, and amid the ruins of the Temple of Minerva will be held a grand banquet.

During his late visit to Paris, King George of Greece was greatly interested in the progress of the approaching visit of the Kaiser and Kaiserin, not to mention all the other guests who will be right royally entertained on the occasion.

THE newly-selected capital of South Korea got the name of Pierre de Picard Chateaux, one of the St. Louis' Chateaux in the days when all that was most expensive was called "Picard," and he was a veritable king.

He was abandoned a great many years ago, and scarcely a vestige of it remains.

It was at Fort Pierre in 1856 that General Harney met the Sioux Indians, whom he had whipped, and made a treaty with them.

A GREEK newspaper is responsible for the following:

"A car owned and raised by Mrs. Cumming, of Irwinton, Ga., is a solid rabbit.

Its head, from front and front section like an ordinary house cat, while its hind part resembles that of a rabbit, its tail being short and perfect, and when not in motion will sit in the same position as a full-grown rabbit."

A CORRESPONDENT writing about the boy divines at Capitol says: "Those who have read 'Emily of Coral Gables' will almost fancy that they can recognize and call by name those laughing spinsters, who are the most popular and interesting stories about their old life."

Sometimes two or more will sit side-by-side, and shake a vestige of it remains.

THE streets of Athens will be given German names for the nonce, out of compliment to the future Crown Princess' family.

All the bride's trousseau is to be made in Germany, and, by order of her mother.

ON the occasion of the marriage of the Duke of Sparta with the German Emperor's sister great fêtes will be held in the Aeroplane, and amid the ruins of the Temple of Minerva will be held a grand banquet.

During his late visit to Paris, King George of Greece was greatly interested in the progress of the approaching visit of the Kaiser and Kaiserin, not to mention all the other guests who will be right royally entertained on the occasion.

THE newly-selected capital of South Korea got the name of Pierre de Picard Chateaux, one of the St. Louis' Chateaux in the days when all that was most expensive was called "Picard," and he was a veritable king.

He was abandoned a great many years ago, and scarcely a vestige of it remains.

IT was at Fort Pierre in 1856 that General Harney met the Sioux Indians, whom he had whipped, and made a treaty with them.

A GREEK newspaper is responsible for the following:

"A car owned and raised by Mrs. Cumming, of Irwinton, Ga., is a solid rabbit.

Its head, from front and front section like an ordinary house cat, while its hind part resembles that of a rabbit, its tail being short and perfect, and when not in motion will sit in the same position as a full-grown rabbit."

A CORRESPONDENT writing about the boy divines at Capitol says: "Those who have read 'Emily of Coral Gables' will almost fancy that they can recognize and call by name those laughing spinsters, who are the most popular and interesting stories about their old life."

Sometimes two or more will sit side-by-side, and shake a vestige of it remains.

THE streets of Athens will be given German names for the nonce, out of compliment to the future Crown Princess' family.

All the bride's trousseau is to be made in Germany, and, by order of her mother.

ON the occasion of the marriage of the Duke of Sparta with the German Emperor's sister great fêtes will be held in the Aeroplane, and amid the ruins of the Temple of Minerva will be held a grand banquet.

During his late visit to Paris, King George of Greece was greatly interested in the progress of the approaching visit of the Kaiser and Kaiserin, not to mention all the other guests who will be right royally entertained on the occasion.

THE newly-selected capital of South Korea got the name of Pierre de Picard Chateaux, one of the St. Louis' Chateaux in the days when all that was most expensive was called "Picard," and he was a veritable king.

He was abandoned a great many years ago, and scarcely a vestige of it remains.

IT was at Fort Pierre in 1856 that General Harney met the Sioux Indians, whom he had whipped, and made a treaty with them.

A GREEK newspaper is responsible for the following:

"A car owned and raised by Mrs. Cumming, of Irwinton, Ga., is a solid rabbit.

Its head, from front and front section like an ordinary house cat, while its hind part resembles that of a rabbit, its tail being short and perfect, and when not in motion will sit in the same position as a full-grown rabbit."

A CORRESPONDENT writing about the boy divines at Capitol says: "Those who have read 'Emily of Coral Gables' will almost fancy that they can recognize and call by name those laughing spinsters, who are the most popular and interesting stories about their old life."

Sometimes two or more will sit side-by-side, and shake a vestige of it remains.

THE streets of Athens will be given German names for the nonce, out of compliment to the future Crown Princess' family.

All the bride's trousseau is to be made in Germany, and, by order of her mother.

ON the occasion of the marriage of the Duke of Sparta with the German Emperor's sister great fêtes will be held in the Aeroplane, and amid the ruins of the Temple of Minerva will be held a grand banquet.

During his late visit to Paris, King George of Greece was greatly interested in the progress of the approaching visit of the Kaiser and Kaiserin, not to mention all the other guests who will be right royally entertained on the occasion.

THE newly-selected capital of South Korea got the name of Pierre de Picard Chateaux, one of the St. Louis' Chateaux in the days when all that was most expensive was called "Picard," and he was a veritable king.

He was abandoned a great many years ago, and scarcely a vestige of it remains.

IT was at Fort Pierre in 1856 that General Harney met the Sioux Indians, whom he had whipped, and made a treaty with them.

A GREEK newspaper is responsible for the following:

"A car owned and raised by Mrs. Cumming, of Irwinton, Ga., is a solid rabbit.

Its head, from front and front section like an ordinary house cat, while its hind part resembles that of a rabbit, its tail being short and perfect, and when not in motion will sit in the same position as a full-grown rabbit."

A CORRESPONDENT writing about the boy divines at Capitol says: "Those who have read 'Emily of Coral Gables' will almost fancy that they can recognize and call by name those laughing spinsters, who are the most popular and interesting stories about their old life."

Sometimes two or more will sit side-by-side, and shake a vestige of it remains.

THE streets of Athens will be given German names for the nonce, out of compliment to the future Crown Princess' family.

All the bride's trousseau is to be made in Germany, and, by order of her mother.

ON the occasion of the marriage of the Duke of Sparta with the German Emperor's sister great fêtes will be held in the Aeroplane, and amid the ruins of the Temple of Minerva will be held a grand banquet.

During his late visit to Paris, King George of Greece was greatly interested in the progress of the approaching visit of the Kaiser and Kaiserin, not to mention all the other guests who will be right royally entertained on the occasion.

THE newly-selected capital of South Korea got the name of Pierre de Picard Chateaux, one of the St. Louis' Chateaux in the days when all that was most expensive was called "Picard," and he was a veritable king.

He was abandoned a great many years ago, and scarcely a vestige of it remains.

IT was at Fort Pierre in 1856 that General Harney met the Sioux Indians, whom he had whipped, and made a treaty with them.

A GREEK newspaper is responsible for the following:

"A car owned and raised by Mrs. Cumming, of Irwinton, Ga., is a solid rabbit.

Its head, from front and front section like an ordinary house cat, while its hind part resembles that of a rabbit, its tail being short and perfect, and when not in motion will sit in the same position as a full-grown rabbit."

A CORRESPONDENT writing about the boy divines at Capitol says: "Those who have read 'Emily of Coral Gables' will almost fancy that they can recognize and call by name those laughing spinsters, who are the most popular and interesting stories about their old life."

Sometimes two or more will sit side-by-side, and shake a vestige of it remains.

THE streets of Athens will be given German names for the nonce, out of compliment to the future Crown Princess' family.

All the bride's trousseau is to be made in Germany, and, by order of her mother.

ON the occasion of the marriage of the Duke of Sparta with the German Emperor's sister great fêtes will be held in the Aeroplane, and amid the ruins of the Temple of Minerva will be held a grand banquet.

During his late visit to Paris, King George of Greece was greatly interested in the progress of the approaching visit of the Kaiser and Kaiserin, not to mention all the other guests who will be right royally entertained on the occasion.

THE newly-selected capital of South Korea got the name of Pierre de Picard Chateaux, one of the St. Louis' Chateaux in the days when all that was most expensive was called "Picard," and he was a veritable king.

He was abandoned a great many years ago, and scarcely a vestige of it remains.

IT was at Fort Pierre in 1856 that General Harney met the Sioux Indians, whom he had whipped, and made a treaty with them.

A GREEK newspaper is responsible for the following:

"A car owned and raised by Mrs. Cumming, of Irwinton, Ga., is a solid rabbit.

Its head, from front and front section like an ordinary house cat, while its hind part resembles that of a rabbit, its tail being short and perfect, and when not in motion will sit in the same position as a full-grown rabbit."

A CORRESPONDENT writing about the boy divines at Capitol says: "Those who have read 'Emily of Coral Gables' will almost fancy that they can recognize and call by name those laughing spinsters, who are the most popular and interesting stories about their old life."

Sometimes two or more will sit side-by-side, and shake a vestige of it remains.

THE streets of Athens will be given German names for the nonce, out of compliment to the future Crown Princess' family.

All the bride's trousseau is to be made in Germany, and, by order of her mother.

ON the occasion of the marriage of the Duke of Sparta with the German Emperor's sister great fêtes will be held in the Aeroplane, and amid the ruins of the Temple of Minerva will be held a grand banquet.

During his late visit to Paris, King George of Greece was greatly interested in the progress of the approaching visit of the Kaiser and Kaiserin, not to mention all the other guests who will be right royally entertained on the occasion.

THE newly-selected capital of South Korea got the name of Pierre de Picard Chateaux, one of the St. Louis' Chateaux in the days when all that was most expensive was called "Picard," and he was a veritable king.

He was abandoned a great many years ago, and scarcely a vestige of it remains.

IT was at Fort Pierre in 1856 that General Harney met the Sioux Indians, whom he had whipped, and made a treaty with them.

A GREEK newspaper is responsible for the following:

"A car owned and raised by Mrs. Cumming, of Irwinton, Ga., is a solid rabbit.

Its head, from front and front section like an ordinary house cat, while its hind part resembles that of a rabbit, its tail being short and perfect, and when not in motion will sit in the same position as a full-grown rabbit."

A CORRESPONDENT writing about the boy divines at Capitol says: "Those who have read 'Emily of Coral Gables' will almost fancy that they can recognize and call by name those laughing spinsters, who are the most popular and interesting stories about their old life."

Sometimes two or more will sit side-by-side, and shake a vestige of it remains.

THE streets of Athens will be given German names for the nonce, out of compliment to the future Crown Princess' family.

All the bride's trousseau is to be made in Germany, and, by order of her mother.

ON the occasion of the marriage of the Duke of Sparta with the German Emperor's sister great fêtes will be held in the Aeroplane, and amid the ruins of the Temple of Minerva will be held a grand banquet.

During his late visit to Paris, King George of Greece was greatly interested in the progress of the approaching visit of the Kaiser and Kaiserin, not to mention all the other guests who will be right royally entertained on the occasion.

THE newly-selected capital of South Korea got the name of Pierre de Picard Chateaux, one of the St. Louis' Chateaux in the days when all that was most expensive was called "Picard," and he was a veritable king.

He was abandoned a great many years ago, and scarcely a vestige of it remains.

IT was at Fort Pierre in 1856 that General Harney met the Sioux Indians, whom he had whipped, and made a treaty with them.

A GREEK newspaper is responsible for the following:

"A car owned and raised by Mrs. Cumming, of Irwinton, Ga., is a solid rabbit.

Its head, from front and front section like an ordinary house cat, while its hind part resembles that of a rabbit, its tail being short and perfect, and when not in motion will sit in the same position as a full-grown rabbit."

A CORRESPONDENT writing about the boy divines at Capitol says: "Those who have read 'Emily of Coral Gables' will almost fancy that they can recognize and call by name those laughing spinsters, who are the most popular and interesting stories about their old life."

Sometimes two or more will sit side-by-side, and shake a vestige of it remains.

THE streets of Athens will be given German names for the nonce, out of compliment to the future Crown Princess' family.

All the bride's trousseau is to be made in Germany, and, by order of her mother.

ON the occasion of the marriage